Ready for an exciting summer? How about going for a journey to the world of baroque music?

Whether you have previous musical background or not, the lecture "Baroque music is fun" will introduce you to several fun things you can find in baroque music: explore baroque violin, viola da gamba, harpsichord and organ among other period instruments used in the 17th and 18th centuries; learn about the freedom of performing baroque music with improvisation and ornamentation; listen to great stories behind scene of some master works by Biber and Handel; and think about how baroque music fits into the 21st century! There will also be live performance-demonstration during the lecture.
